

EIB Art Tour, Thursday 8th January 2026 from 17:45, Headquarters of the European Investment Bank

The Oxford University Society of Luxembourg is delighted to invite you to an exclusive tour of the EIB Art Collection led by curator Delphine MUNRO

The EIB has a collection of c. 1,000 works of art that encompasses over 700 contemporary pieces ranging across all media: paintings, photographs, sculptures, etc.

The collection consists mostly of European contemporary art and is complemented by Old Masters, 19th century and modern pieces.

Mrs Delphine Munro has been the Head of Arts & Culture at the EIB since 2009, in which capacity she is also the curator of the institution's extensive art collection, involving exhibitions at the EIB and internationally. She created and manages the innovative EIB Artist Development Programme, accelerating talent.

She also chairs the Casino Luxembourg - Forum d'Art Contemporain and is the President of the International Association of Corporate Collections of Contemporary Art.

- Venue: EIB Headquarters, 98-100, Boulevard Konrad Adenauer, 2950 Luxembourg.
NB: The venue can be reached via public transport (closest tram stop Paffendall) or car (closest parking: Place de l'Europe). Note: For security reasons, all attendees will be required to send by 28th December 2025 their name and nationality and to bring their ID Card (or equivalent) to register at the reception. Allow 10-15 mins to clear security.
- Programme: Registration from 17:45, followed by the art tour at 18:00. The tour will be followed by an optional private dinner with our hosts from EIB at Culturando (10 Rue des Forains, L-1533 Luxembourg). Please note that dinner is not included in the ticket price.
