

Private guided tour of the European Court of Justice (ECJ)

20 April, at 10am followed by
Lunch with Judge Elisabeth Tichy-Fisslberger
in the executive Restaurant of the ECJ

The Oxford Alumni Society is delighted to invite you to this privileged tour and lunch at the European Court of Justice. We will be a select group of maximum twenty persons, so do if you wish to join, please do not hesitate to register.

Meeting at 10am in the morning, we will be taken on a guided tour of the ECJ, and enjoy a short talk on the institution including a Q&A session, before gathering for a delicious lunch.

Date: 20 April, start at 10am sharp due to security checks, so please bring ID. Map is attached.

Venue: the European Court of Justice (ECJ), Rue du Fort Niedergrünwald, 2925 Kirchberg Luxembourg

Lunch: Following the tour & talk, we will have the privilege of enjoying lunch in the Judges' Restaurant of the European Court of Justice. This is kindly arranged by ECJ Judge Dr. Elisabeth Tichy-Fisslberger, who – unless called away at the last minute – will also do us the honour of joining us for the lunch.

Menu: choice between two or three courses, please refer to attached menu and liaise with organisers.

Sign-up: with Mette Ahlefeldt-Laurvig, and Bob Kieffer.
Don't forget to state your choice of menu.

Deadline: 8 April (as stipulated by our hosts)

With best wishes, and on behalf of the OUSL Organising Committee
